

Now Percys quite scared for he just passed a boy. Who hit him with stones while he shouted Oh Joy!

And when something hit him on top of the head He thought it a brick-bat the boy at him sped

And now he is running for home the poor kid Not knowing he has the old gentlemans lid

When Perce reached the house he did nothing butstare and couldn't tell May how the hat had come there

And next thing he knew came a rat-a-tat-tat
Then in came the cop and caught him with the hat

And Perce spent the night in a cell in the jail As May hadnt the cash to pay his large bail